

HEALTHSOUTH Closes on New Revolving Credit Facility

PRNewswire-FirstCall
BIRMINGHAM, Ala.

HEALTHSOUTH Corporation announced that effective June 14, 2002, it had closed on a new five-year revolving credit facility co-arranged by JPMorgan Chase Bank and Wachovia Bank, N.A. The new $1.25 billion facility replaces the company's previous revolving credit facility, which was scheduled to mature in mid-2003. In late May, the company closed on a $1 billion private placement of ten-year senior notes. The transaction was originally proposed at $500 million and was upsized to meet market demand.

"We are pleased that, with the consummation of the senior note transaction last month and the successful syndication of this new revolving credit facility, we have now made provision for all of our material debt maturities for the next five years," said Richard M. Scrushy, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of HEALTHSOUTH. "The response in the capital markets to these financings was very positive, and we believe that our new credit facility, combined with our cash flow from operations, will help ensure that we continue to have a strong liquidity position to support our operational needs and our growth strategies."

HEALTHSOUTH is the nation's largest provider of outpatient surgery and rehabilitative healthcare services, with approximately 1,900 locations in all 50 states, the United Kingdom, Australia, Puerto Rico and Canada. HEALTHSOUTH can be found on the Web at <http://www.healthsouth.com/>.
