

HealthSouth To Acquire Rehabilitation Unit at Medical Center of Arlington

PRNewswire-FirstCall
BIRMINGHAM, Ala.

HealthSouth Corporation today announced it has entered into a definitive agreement to acquire a 30-bed inpatient rehabilitation unit at the Medical Center of Arlington in Texas. The unit is currently owned by Columbia Medical Center of Arlington Subsidiary, L.P. Once the transaction is complete, the unit's operations will relocate to HealthSouth Rehabilitation Hospital of Arlington.

"We are very pleased to be able to offer HealthSouth's high quality services to more patients in the Arlington area," said Jay Grinney, HealthSouth's president and chief executive officer. "The Medical Center of Arlington has provided exceptional rehabilitative care to patients in this community for many years and we look forward to continuing this tradition."

HealthSouth currently operates 14 rehabilitation hospitals throughout Texas. Accredited by The Joint Commission, HealthSouth's inpatient rehabilitation hospitals provide a higher level of rehabilitative care to patients who are recovering from stroke and other neurological disorders, brain and spinal cord injury, amputations, orthopedic, cardiac and pulmonary conditions.

The closing of the transaction is subject to certain state and federal regulatory approvals and is expected to take place in the third quarter of 2008.
