

Encompass Health to construct 40-bed inpatient rehabilitation hospital in Greenville, South Carolina

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 21, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Encompass Health Corp. (NYSE: EHC) today announced its plans to build a freestanding, 40-bed inpatient rehabilitation hospital in Greenville, South Carolina on the corner of Laurens Road and Dallas Road.

Complementing local acute care services, the hospital, which is expected to open in mid-2021, will care for patients recovering from a variety of debilitating illnesses and injuries including strokes and other neurological disorders, brain injuries, spinal cord injuries, amputations and complex orthopedic conditions. It offers physical, occupational and speech therapies as well as 24-hour nursing care that aim to restore functional ability and quality of life.

"We're excited about the opportunity to bring our specialized, high-quality rehabilitative care to Greenville," said Ed Mowen, president of Encompass Health's midatlantic region. "Through a multidisciplinary and patient-centered approach to care, our team will provide patients with the encouragement and care they need to help them reach their highest levels of independence and move forward in their life."

The hospital will feature a large therapy gym, advanced rehabilitation technologies, an activities of daily living suite, cafeteria and dining room, pharmacy and courtyard.

It will become part of Encompass Health's national network of inpatient rehabilitation hospitals and home health and hospice agencies. The Company's South Carolina footprint includes inpatient rehabilitation hospitals in Anderson, Bluffton, Charleston, Columbia, Florence, Murrells Inlet and Rock Hill and home health and hospice locations in Aiken, Bluffton and Columbia.
