

Encompass Health appoints Mark Miller as senior vice president of investor relations and strategic planning

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 24, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Encompass Health (NYSE: EHC), a national leader in integrated healthcare services, has named Mark Miller as its senior vice president of investor relations and strategic planning, effective Sept. 7, 2021.

Miller has 20 years of healthcare investment leadership experience. He joins Encompass Health from Maximus where he serves as vice president of future market development, helping to guide strategy for its U.S. Services segment. In addition, he has previously served as both a buy-side and sell-side healthcare analyst.

"We are delighted to welcome Mark to Encompass Health," said Doug Coltharp, EVP and chief financial officer for Encompass Health. "His wealth of experience in the healthcare sector and his deep knowledge of our company make him well-suited to lead our investor relations and strategic planning functions."

Miller holds a bachelor's degree from Binghamton University, a master's degree in business administration from Columbia Business School and a juris doctorate from University of California, Los Angeles. He will assume the position previously held by Crissy Carlisle, who has now transitioned into the chief financial officer role for Encompass Health's home health and hospice business.
